

Fauci's wife gives the bird, Rand Paul answers with absolute fire

The swamp is melting down in SPECTACULAR fashion and Senator Rand Paul just delivered pure comedy GOLD.

New York Post@nypost

Fauci's fed-up wife flips the bird as ex-top doc miserably takes out trash hours after contempt vote. Soon the trash known as Dr. Anthony Fauci will be taken out too.

After the Senate committee held Anthony Fauci in CONTEMPT — the man who took the Fifth over 100 times like a cornered rat — his wife Christine Grady flipped off a photographer outside their house. Real class from the Biden-era royalty.

Rand Paul's reply? Absolute SAVAGE:

“Is that how you plead the fifth in sign language?”

PERFECT. Rand Paul has been dismantling Fauci's lies for years and now the whole family is exposed. Fauci used to bask in Fake News glory when they called him America's doctor. Now the cameras make him look like a sullen LOSER and his wife throws middle fingers.

Phil Magness said it best:

“This is what accountability looks like, folks. The Radical Left's unelected emperor is finally facing consequences. Keep flipping us off, losers. We're too busy DRAINING THE SWAMP and WINNING to care.”

AMERICA IS BACK and the golden age of real oversight is here!
