THE RISE OF ISLAM “DISGUISED” AS THE DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISTS OF AMERICA

Many of you may recall our Newsletter on May 18, 2026, entitled “The Rise of Islam”. The Newsletter raised the alarm about proposed legislation in California to adopt TWO religious Islamic holidays as “official” state holidays, when the Islamic population in California represents only a small 2% of the total population of California and 1.2% in the nation.

We noted that neither California nor the nation is culturally nor historically Islamic. Thus, we believed the effort to designate two Islamic religious holidays as official state holidays was in actuality an overt attempt to elevate the Muslim religion to have parity with an otherwise Christian nation. We questioned what was behind the push, and what political influence this small group of Islamists had within the Democrat party in California to even propose such legislation.

Our Newsletter also cited a recent article which warned that, “Sharia law in the United States of America has reached penetration phase 3, or “Infiltration”, defined as follows: When Muslims gain critical mass in a few cities, they begin to infiltrate the institutions of the host society. They lobby the government, support Muslim political candidates, conduct public relations campaigns, and file lawsuits against alleged Islamophobia”.

With the recent rise of the Democratic Socialists of America and the Muslims within their ranks, you can imagine our surprise when Hasan Piker became the voice of the DSA, and Abdul El-Sayed won the Michigan Democrat party primary for the U.S. Senate. This is in addition to the recent election of Zohran Mamdani (D) as Mayor of New York City, home to the New York Stock Exchange, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, and the headquarters of many of the country's financial institutions.

As conservatives, we began to question what was going on that would cause such a political shift and the radicalization of the Democrat party. One only need to look no further than a January 28, 2021 article in the Harvard Kennedy School, Student Policy Review, entitled “DSA Muslim Caucus: a New Home for the Muslim Left”, authored by Yaseen Hashmi, one of Harvard's “Progressive Policy Review” students. Yes, that pinnacle of university education, Harvard University, who according to their website is “devoted to... developing leaders who make a difference globally”.

This excerpt from the Harvard University article spells out the DSA Muslim roadmap for societal and governmental change, and cements the relationship between the DSA and Marxists:

“Even if the end of time is upon you and you have a seedling in your hand, plant it.” This hadith, or verified quote from the Prophet Muhammad, highlights the inherent value of cultivation in Islam.

Inspired by the revolutionary legacy of Malcolm X, students Sirad Hassan, Samy Amkieh, and Abdelhamid Arbab put out a statement calling for a ‘dedicated group of Muslims within the Democratic Socialists of America,’ meant to organize against the chokehold of a corrupt and racist capitalist structure.” <https://studentreview.hks.harvard.edu/dsa-muslim-caucus-a-new-home-for-the-muslim-left/>

Can you Believe It?? YES!!!

Based on the above, you can imagine our surprise when we learned that our own Governor Gavin Newsom endorsed Abdul El-Sayed for the U.S. Senate. As reported in the New York Post, “Gavin Newsom’s embrace of the radical left will see him head to the battleground state of Michigan this weekend to campaign for Democrats after firebrand Abdul El-Sayed clinched the party’s Senate nomination”. Leave it to Gavin “Newsom” to never miss an opportunity in an attempt to enhance his Democrat political bonafides.

If the embracement of DSA members by Senate minority leader Chuck Schumer (D-NY) et al., is a representation of what Sen. Schumer has called “the Big Tent” party, it is causing a rift amongst its most well known members, including James Carville, John Fetterman, and most recently Julian Epstein. Yes, that Julian Epstein, a Democratic strategist and former chief counsel to the House Judiciary Committee during the Clinton presidency, the former staff director of the House Oversight Committee, and a regular Democratic commentator on MSNBC.

On August 6, 2026, Julien Epstein authored an article in the New York Post, wherein he stated:

President John F. Kennedy, in his inaugural address, may have said it best: “In the past, those who foolishly sought power by riding the back of the tiger ended up inside”.

It was a warning to those who tolerate the rise of authoritarian communism that they will inevitably end up next on the dinner menu.

Michigan Democrats, in nominating Abdul El-Sayed for Senate on Tuesday seem to be riding the back of that tiger. But not me. I’m climbing off the beast.

After decades of giving my all for Democratic House and Senate candidates, this fall I will support — and contribute to — Mike Rogers, Michigan’s GOP Senate nominee, instead.

Can You Believe It?? YES!!!

Epstein is obviously enraged by the direction of the Democrat Party in embracing the DSA, and in particular the Muslims within its ranks. The article he wrote goes on further to state:

He [Abdul El-Sayed] expresses sympathy for Mideastern terrorist movements that masquerade as liberation efforts, giving cover to terror attacks on Jewish synagogues in the US.

Hasan Piker, his principal campaign surrogate, blames the US for 9/11 and professes his love for China's madman dictator Mao Zedong, who slaughtered millions of his own people.

Epstein then gives Democrats the following advice:

Some in Michigan are hinting at mass party defections in November....To arrest this freefall, Democratic leaders must do more than just tell the extremists to find another party; they must all admit that post-modern liberalism is failing.

Epstein concludes his article with a statement that is as close to conservative values as one can get. Thus, you can imagine our surprise when we read the following statement:

But America's future depends on teaching our people how to build, not how to take from others or peddle whining complaints. Until Democrats understand that, the defections will keep on coming.

We Can Only Hope!!
